MORE ABOUT THE PARK

Turkey Run State Park is made up of 2,382 acres and is Indiana's second state park. You'll marvel at the natural geologic wonders of this beautiful park as you hike along its famous trails. The park offers the chance to explore deep, sandstone ravines, walk along stands of aged forests, and enjoy the scenic views along Sugar Creek.

The Park has several hiking trails that pass by historic structures preserved at Turkey Run, including the historic Lusk Home and mill site, Lieber Cabin, which belonged to Col. Richard Lieber, the father of Indiana State Parks, the Log Church, and sandstone trail structures.

The Park also includes an Olympic-size pool, hayrides, and horseback rides.

THE TRAIL ROUTE

Two options: The first is a guided hike that lasts about an hour. The trail is very rugged; absolutely no strollers are permitted. Option two is the five-mile challenge. Participants will receive a map and guide themselves.
